

Postcard Contest

Digging Peanuts in Plains: Hometown of the 39th President

Sponsored by
The Jimmy Carter NHS Education Program and The Peanut Institute

K-12 students are invited to enter our annual postcard contest. This year's theme is Digging Peanuts in Plains:Hometown of the 39th President.

Directions:

1. Student work must be completed at school on a white 3x5 or 4x6 sheet of paper or unruled index card.
2. The card can include a written message and colorful drawings.
3. The artwork and message must include at least one peanut and relate to the theme.
4. Student's name, grade level, teacher's name, school's mailing address, school phone number and fax number must be on the back of each card so schools of the winners can be contacted.
5. Mail your class entries bundled together in one envelope with a note on top that includes:
number of students participating, grade level, teacher's name and e-mail address, school address, phone number and fax number with the area code.
6. All entries must be postmarked by August 31, 2012.
7. Teachers of the winning entries will be contacted by September 7th.

Judging Criteria:

1. Original student artwork using crayons, pens, markers or pencils.
2. Creativity in use of peanut drawings. (No copyright trademarks accepted)
3. Use of the theme: Digging Peanuts in Plains:Hometown of the 39th President

All entries become the property of the Jimmy Carter NHS Education Program and will not be returned.

Winning entries may be used as promotional material.

Awards:

1. 1st place winners per grade level of this statewide contest will receive a certificate and signed copy of one of President Carter's books.
2. 2nd and 3rd place winners will receive a certificate.
3. President Carter is scheduled to present awards to 1st-3rd place winners at the Peanut Festival.
4. The winning entries will be on exhibit at the Plains Peanut Festival.
5. Teachers of the winning entries will receive a movie about Plains and a poster for their classroom.

Mail entries to:

Annette Wise, 300 North Bond Street, Plains, Georgia 31780.

Previous winners' artwork is online at www.jimmycarter.info under In the Spotlight.
Lesson plans, videos and additional resources are online at Teacher Resources.
Free curriculum based field trips are being booked now for the 2012-2013 school year.

